SophSoft, Incorporated was founded in 1982, making it the oldest game development company in Michigan.

SophSoft provides high-quality game development services for studios and publishers, and self-publishes games under the Digital Gamecraft brand.

SophSoft has broad technical expertise that includes:

- Windows: developed dozens of published titles, as well as countless other projects, over more than 20 years.
- Mac OS X: developed 10 published SKUs, both for direct download and for the Mac App Store, in the last 8 years.
- Apple iOS: developed 7 published titles over the previous 4 years, including iPad and "universal" (iPad and iPhone) apps.
- Android: created projects for phones, tablets, and OUYA console.
- 32/64-bit: built projects for both 32-bit and 64-bit systems on Windows, Mac OS X, and Apple iOS.
- Other Platforms: worked with tools for Windows Store, Xbox 360, Windows Phone, Playstation, and many more.
- Programming: develop currently using C++, Objective-C, Java, C#, and more, with functional understanding of many other languages.
- Quality Assurance: practice and teach about internal and external testing techniques for robust game development.
- Game Design: create and improve game and user interface designs.
- Artificial Intelligence: use experience with game tree search, neural networks, natural language processing, and other AI technologies.
- Commerce: work with IAP (in-app purchases), advertising, and other monetization techniques, especially for free-to-play games.

SophSoft is proud to be a sponsor of Meaningful Play 2014!
